The Ash Grove

Welsh Folk Song/arr. Rentz

Alliance, AMP 0206

The ash grove, how graceful, how plainly 'tis speaking.
The wind through it playing has language for me.
Whenever the light through its branches is breaking,
I see the kind of faces of friends dear to me
The friends of my childhood again are before me,
Each step makes a memory as freely I roam.
With soft whispers laden, its leaves rustle o'er me,
The ash grove, the ash grove alone is my home.

My laughter is fading, My step loses lightness,
Old countryside measures ring soft on my ear.
I only remember the past and its brightness,
The dear ones I mourn for again gather here.
From out of the shadows their loving looks greet me,
And wistfully searching the leafy green dome.
I find other faces still bending to greet me,
The ash grove, the ash grove alone is my home.

Cold Blows the Wind

English Folksong/arr. McCray

Mark Foster, MF 859

Cold blows the wind on my true love,
Cold blow the drops of rain.
I never, never had but one true love.
In the green woods he was slain.

I'll do as much for my true love as any other girl.
I'll sit and weep upon his grave,
For twelve months and one day.

When the twelve months and one day was o'er,
His ghost appeared and said:
"Why do you sit and weep all over my grave?
Why do you stay with the dead?"

"When shall we meet again, sweetheart?
When shall we meet again?"
"When oaken leaves fall from trees,
And green spring comes again."

Shine on Me

Traditional Spiritual/arr. Dilloworth

Hal Leonard, 08551556

Shine on me. I wonder if the lighthouse will shine on me.
Is a light shinin' above? Is it shinin' above in the heavens for me?
I'm wonderin' if there's a light that is shinin' above in the heavens for me.
Shine on Me! Will it shine on me?

Take Me to Sea

Lauren McIntyre

Shawnee Press, B-438

Walking beaches of silver sails, Moonligh hazy on the shallowed waters,
Take me to sea with you, and speak to me of drifting.

Empty boxes from Chinatown float into the sand, Dreams of far away places that can never be found,
Take me to sea with you, and speak to me of drifting.

I'm Goin' Up a Yonder

Hawkins/arr. Sirvatka

Boosey & Hawkes, OCTB6451

If any body asks you where I'm goin' soon,
If you wanna know where I'm goin' real soon,
I'm goin' up a yonder to be with my Lord.

If I can take the pain, the heartache that it brings,
There's comfort that in knowing I'll soon be home.
If God gives me grace, I'll run this race,
And soon I'll see my Savior face to face.
I'm goin' up a yonder to be with my Lord.
